Proceedings of the Chief Commissioner of Mysore in the Revenue Department (Revenue) dated 7th August 1880.

Read:-

Chief Commissioner's proceedings No.911-19-89, dated 19th May 1880.

No. 2783-90/D.F.29, dated Bangalore 7th August 1880.

Order.

In continuation of proceedings No.911-89, of the 19th May 1880, the Chief Commissioner directs that the following rule be added to those laid down in para 3 of the above proceedings.

Where no customary rates prevail, or can be agreed upon, in regard to the ferrying of the villagers and market people in the neighbourhood of the ferry, and their cattle and goods, as distinguished from general passengers, half the prescribed rates of fees only shall be levied from them.

C.RANGACHARLU,
Revenue Secretary.

Read:-

Letter No.210, of the 31st July 1880 from the Deputy Commissioner of the Hassan District on the subject of the right of the Narsimhaswami temple at Gorur to the income from the ferry at that station.

No.2791-9/D.F. dated Bangalore 7th August 1880.

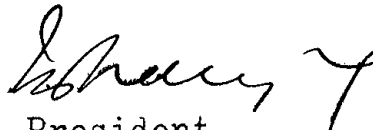

Order thereon. The orders issued in proceedings No.911-19-89 of the 19th May last were not intended to cancel the instructions issued in para 3 of proceedings No.1351 R.4, dated 3rd June 75, in regard to prescriptive rights possessed by temples in the proceeds of individual ferries and in regard to which the Deputy Commissioner's report has been awaited.

There appear to be only two such cases of private rights in ferries on the high roads in the Hassan District, besides four more cases of minor ferries. Final orders have already been issued in proceedings No.2611-G. 101, dated 18th August 1873, sanctioning the payment of Rs 17/7/8 to the Ramanathapur temple from the annual proceeds from the ferry at that station. The claim of the Gorur Narasimhaswami temple now reported upon is of a similar kind, is based on prescriptive enjoyment but not supported by any valid grant. This prescriptive right extended only to certain services from the ferry men who were allowed to enjoy the ferry rent free. The instructions issued by the Muzrai officer in 1870 for making over the entire income of the ferry to the temple instead of the services were quite unauthorised. The Chief Commissioner is not therefore prepared to sanction the proposal of the Deputy Commissioner to assign to the temple an amount equal to the average income from the ferry viz., Rs. 314/-. The right of the temple is altogether of an indefinite character and can only admit of settlement by a compromise. Under all the circumstances of the case, the Chief Commissioner is pleased to sanction the payment to the temple from the District Funds of an annual sum of Rs 157/ being half the average proceeds of the ferry for the last five years. The temple will not be entitled to share in any increased income which may be secured by an improved management of the ferry.

C. Rangachari,
Revenue Secretary.
